2017 Public Interest Fellowship Application

The South Asian Bar Association of Washington, D.C. seeks to organize, support and promote public interest activities and projects for the benefit of the South Asian community and the metropolitan D.C. area.

The South Asian Bar Association of Washington, D.C. strives to promote the professional development of South Asian lawyers and law students, educate the South Asian community about relevant legal issues, expand and enhance business and professional opportunities for South Asians, increase the participation of South Asians in civic affairs and government, facilitate the exchange of ideas and information to South Asians, and foster goodwill, fellowship, and unity among the South Asian community.

South Asian Bar Association of Washington, D.C. (SABA-DC)

About SABA-DC Public Interest Fellowships

SABA-DC provides financial assistance in the form of summer fellowships to law students working at public interest organizations in the metropolitan D.C. area. The primary purpose of the fellowship is to help fund a student's internship with a public interest organization for the benefit of the South Asian community and the metropolitan D.C. area. The number of Fellowships awarded, as well as the amount of each grant, will be determined by the SABA-DC Fellowship Committee and is based on SABA-DC's fundraising efforts and the number of quality applicants it receives. SABA-DC has provided grants up to $5,000 per fellow in past years, and sponsors several fellows every year.

Fellowship Selection Criteria

Each applicant must be a current law student in good standing, and must have received confirmation of employment or internship with a public interest organization during the summer of 2017. Public interest law can be practiced in five types of settings: nonprofit organizations; legal services organizations; district attorneys'/public defenders' offices; federal, state, and local government; and public service law firms. SABA-DC considers all of the materials submitted by the applicant, with particular weight given to the applicant's essay. In addition, SABA-DC will schedule interviews with applicants as part of the selection process. Other factors that SABA-DC may consider include commitment to public service, financial need, academic achievement, and other criteria. Fellows are expected to complete a short essay about their experience before the end of their fellowship and to attend at least two SABA-DC events during the year of their fellowship. Fellows are also encouraged to attend the SABA-DC Public Interest Gala, typically held in November.

SABA-DC Non-Discrimination Policy

It is the policy of SABA-DC not to discriminate on the basis of age, gender, disability, race, color, creed, religion, ethnicity, national origin, veteran status, or sexual orientation. All potential applicants are encouraged to apply.

Fellowship Application Instructions

Applicants must submit the following materials: (1) completed application form, (2) essay responses, (3) resume with references, and (4) completed Employer form. Applicants may also submit the following optional materials: letters of recommendation, or evidence of financial need. Completed application materials must be e-mailed no later than April 7, 2017 to sabadcpifellowship@gmail.com.

One or more members of the Fellowship Committee will interview applicants beginning on the week of April 9, 2017. All applicants will be notified of the Committee's determinations by April 24, 2017.

The act of applying for the fellowship constitutes a release of the submitted application materials and consent to SABA-DC for any reasonable publication of information contained in such application materials. SABA-DC reserves the right in its sole discretion to change the number of fellowships awarded, the dollar amount of each fellowship or not award any fellowships in 2017. Please direct questions to sabadcpifellowship@gmail.com.

The amount of the award shall be determined in the discretion of SABA-DC, taking into account relevant considerations including the length and nature of the internship. In the absence of demonstrated economic hardship or other extenuating circumstances, a recipient shall receive two-thirds of a fellowship award at the commencement of an internship and one-third at the conclusion of the internship. Prior to being awarded the final sum, the recipient shall submit to SABA-DC a one-page written statement describing the services rendered by the recipient and the benefits afforded by the internship to the South Asian community.

A fellowship recipient must immediately notify SABA-DC in writing if the recipient (a) leaves the summer position listed in their application, (b) changes employers, (c) ceases to work for the required number of hours, or (d) becomes subject to academic discipline or ceases to be enrolled in law school. In its discretion SABA-DC shall determine whether forfeiture of the fellowship or a modification of the terms or amount of the award is appropriate. A recipient's failure to comply with SABA-DC's policies and/or the conditions of the fellowship may result in the forfeiture of the entire award or a portion thereof.
